Ishine Withdraws and Relinquishes Its Interest In Mt Watson Project

Ishine International Resources Limited (“Ishine” or “the Company”) advises that the Company has withdrawn from the Mt Watson Project (“Project”).

Following further review by its management, Ishine has decided not to further pursue any interest in the Project and withdraws from the Project Joint Venture with Kabiri Resources Pty Ltd (“Kabiri”) effective immediately. With the withdrawal, Ishine will relinquish all its interest in the project.

Ishine earned a 70% undivided interest in the Mt Watson Project in October 2012.

Ishine also advises that The 8th Institute of Geology and Mineral Exploration (“IGME”) has withdrawn from the Mt Watson Project JV with Ishine and has forfeited all their interest earned in the Project.

As Ishine has withdrawn from and relinquished its interest in the Project, the Company will be writing off the capitalised exploration expenditure of $613,053 in the financial year ending 31 December 2014.
